

From Pastor Jim's Desk: October Newsletter

In the latest Concordia Theological Quarterly, was this little article on the Sanctity of Marriage and questions the latest Supreme Court's ruling on same-sex marriages raises for Christians. Obviously the battle is NOT over.

The Sanctity of Marriage

The following discussion points concerning the sanctity of marriage and the U.S. Supreme Court's June 26, 2015, decision regarding same-sex marriage were prepared by Peter J. Scaer, Associate Professor of Exegetical Theology, Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

1. The Supreme Court decision changes nothing about our Christian faith. We believe that there is still a higher court and that Christ will be our final judge. As Christians, we obey the government (Romans 13), but we recognize that our greatest allegiance is to God and his word, and that in matters of conscience, "We must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29).

2. We therefore will continue to support one man one woman marriage, as it is taught in Genesis 1 and 2, and as it is taught by Christ himself (Matt 19:1-9 and Mark 10:1-12).

3. We will continue to preach marriage as a picture of Christ's sacrificial love for his bride the church (Ephesians 5), even as we celebrate the Lord's Supper, which is the beginning of the wedding feast that has no end (Matthew 22; Revelation 21).

4. The church will continue to be a place of healing and forgiveness, restoration and mercy. As our Lord has said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance" (Luke 5:31-32).

5. We are all called to repentance. As a people, we have not treated marriage with the respect that it deserves. Divorce is far too common among us, and too often we condone and support even our fellow Christians as they live together outside of wedlock. Knowing that we cannot rely upon worldly wisdom, we are called to hear and reflect upon God's Word and once more come to him for forgiveness.

6. True love calls us to speak the truth so that all may know the forgiveness and love of Christ. We cannot celebrate that which God calls sin (Rom 1:18-32; 1 Cor 6:9). By doing so, we leave people in their sin and apart from Christ.

7. We will also continue to support traditional marriage as an earthly institution, knowing that it is a reflection of natural law and that any law that goes against the natural law will necessarily be harmful and unjust. Written into creation, marriage is good for men, women and children.

8. The Court has been wrong before. In the Dred Scott decision, African Americans were counted as less than human. In Roe v. Wade, the rights of the littlest children were ignored, leading to the deaths of 57 million children. The Supreme Court, like any human institution, is prone to error. As Christians, we recognize that there is a higher, heavenly court and that God's Word does not change. We also recognize that unjust decisions must be challenged for the good of our neighbor.

9. The debate over marriage has nothing to do with equality. The pertinent question is, "What is Marriage?" The traditional definition is not arbitrary, but is based upon the fact that every child has a biological mother and father and should have a reasonable expectation that he/she will be raised by those parents. Traditional marriage discriminates against no one. The real discrimination will come against those who hold fast to God's Word.

10. Same-sex marriage is not a civil rights issue. Whether you are black or white makes no difference, but men and women are different biologically, psychologically, and emotionally. From our differences, new life comes into the world, and with our complementary differences, we are best able to support and nurture the next generation.

11. Marriage is the only institution that binds a man to his wife and to any children that result from that union. Only the union of one man and one woman is able to produce a child, and for that reason there is marriage.

12. Mothers and fathers are not interchangeable. For good reason, we celebrate Mother's Day and Father's Day. It is a blessing to have both a mom and a dad, each of whom brings something special to the family. In a fallen world this is not always possible. God salvages difficult situations. Therefore, our congregations will continue to be true families in Christ, as we continue to call upon God as our Father.

13. Some ask, "How will same-sex marriage affect me?" Consider, for instance, the way that no-fault divorce laws have hurt our society and left so many of our children abandoned and unprotected. The values of permanence, exclusivity, and monogamy are inherently tied to the fact that only man and one woman can produce a child and have an obligation to care for that child.

14. So-called "gay marriage" is not the end of the debate but only the beginning. There is now no consistent logical argument against polygamy, group marriage or temporary marriage. Such arguments, once thought to be extreme, are now commonplace. In the midst of such confusion, the church must continue to speak the truth in love.

15. Marriage is about more than the relationship of two people. It is the institution that binds the generations together. At the birth of every child, the mother, by the very nature of things, is present. Marriage is the one institution that encourages, incentivizes, and obligates the father to be present as well. Marriage then creates a network of aunts and uncles, grandparents and cousins, helping to establish a child's sense of belonging.

16. As same-sex marriage becomes the law of the land, Christians will be increasingly persecuted for their belief. Already, florists and bakers have come under fire. Businessmen have lost their jobs and reputations. Christian adoption agencies have been forced to close. Pastors have had their sermons subpoenaed. Christian schools have already come under assault, having to fight for their accreditation. The free exercise of religion, a constitutionally protected right, is under great assault. We therefore must stand together with people of conscience. We must support those who speak God's truth in love and are persecuted for living according to their faith in Christ.

17. As Christians, we are called to be faithful to Christ our Bridegroom. The days ahead will be trying and our faith will be tested. The world will call us haters and we will be mocked and ridiculed (John 15:18-25). Yet, even in the midst of persecution, Jesus calls us to rejoice, saying, "Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you" (Matt 5:12). As Christians, we will listen to the Good Shepherd, knowing that his words are faithful and true. Though the world may hate us, we cling to Christ who says, "Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev 2:10).

Walk through the Bible Class

In October, we continue our study of the New Testament Books, particularly the Gospels. Our Walk through the Bible Class will meet every Tuesday at 1 or 7 PM, but not on October 6th. This is an endeavor to finish the entire Bible before Pastor Jim retires, next June, 2016.

As we study the New Testament, this would be a good time to reconsider your participation in this class. If you have not been involved so far, I would personally ask you to think about joining our study. I really believe you will be glad you did.

If you decide to join us for the first time, simply let Pastor Jim know, so that ample amount of materials can be prepared. Thank you.

WOMEN OF THE BIBLE
Old Testament & New Testament
On Sunday, October 11th at 7 PM, Pastor Jim will teach on the Key Women of the Bible. Gals this is your time to shine and learn of the great things Women accomplished in Scripture.

Next Teaching Events

The next Teaching Event is all about the Women of the Bible. Key women play very important roles in the Biblical History and enable the Plan of God's Salvation to move forward. This teaching event is scheduled for Sunday, October 11th at 7 pm. See how the women of the Bible shine. There is no cost to attend and nor do you have to pre-register for this study. Simply come and grow!

In the Battle between Darkness and Light... Light Wins!

Ever since the Supreme Court decision this past June on Same-Sex Marriages, individual Christians, businesses and Churches have been persecuted. What can the Christian Community do? How can we respond to the "criminalization" of Christianity? On Sunday, November 1st, at 7 pm, Pastor Jim will show the documentary on the facts of same-sex marriages and what we as Christians can do to overcome the criminalization of Christianity. This is a must see for every committed Christian living today.

How to Overcome the "Criminalization of Christianity"
On Sunday, November 1st, at 7 PM, Pastor Jim will show the documentary "Light Wins" a study of the facts of same-sex marriages and how Christians can respond to the present day collapse of our society.
"You just can't miss this!"
